

WHY COURT SHOULD BE THE LAST RESORT FOR YOUR DIVORCE

COURT

LACK OF CONTROL

Judge is in complete control over decisions that will permanently impact you & your family.

STRICT PROCEDURE

Must comply with existing law if you and your spouse can't come to an agreement.

NO PRIVACY

All your personal issues are aired in an open court room.

PAST FOCUSED

The court only makes decisions based on past events and cannot always consider the future.

ADVERSARIAL PROCESS

Litigation process locks you and your spouse in a battle where no one feels like a winner.

WASTED RESOURCES

Staggering expenses and time wasted on ineffective justice system.

POSITION FOCUSED

Court fixates on your position and locks you in a battle of right vs. wrong.

FRUSTRATION

Short lived solutions that are based solely on your immediate circumstances.

RESULTS

MEDIATION & COLLABORATIVE LAW

COMPLETE CONTROL

Conscious decision making on issues that will effect your family forever.

FLEXIBILITY

More creativity to resolve the issues in a way that works for your family and personal circumstances.

TOTAL PRIVACY

Confidential meetings that keep your personal business private

FUTURE FOCUSED

Allow you and your spouse to make agreements based on future expectations

NON-ADVERSARIAL PROCESS

Mediation & Collaborative law are options that can help you & your spouse find a win-win solution.

INVESTMENT

Focused negotiations help keep costs down; saving you both time & money.

INTEREST FOCUSED

Providing a space where you & your spouse can express what is important to you.

LONG TERM SATISFACTION

Arrive at an agreement that's durable for the whole family.
